Honorable Mention
All District

Hampered by lack of size and inexperience, St. Clair had one of its poorer basketball seasons in many years.

The team tried very hard and never gave up. The loss of 4 starters and many substitutes from last year's team didn't help. The future looks brighter with many regulars coming back for next year's team.

In the spring sport of baseball the 1955 team was a championship team in this half of the district and then lost out in the district final to Mankato. With the loss of five seniors, plus three others, this years team is very young. They do not have the experience of last year's team, but are a very promising bunch. In a couple of years we should have another championship team.

The play takes place in the living room of the Woodbridge residence. The trouble starts after the last house keeper left, and Mr. Woodbridge forbids Elmer to set foot on his property again. Well Elmer appears on the scene again as a housekeeper so he could be near Babbie. Another housekeeper, Ma Simpkins, appears on the scene also and with an excess of housekeepers a rollicking comedy was presented.

To sponser the feeling of good will between schools our juniors presented the play for the third time with the profits going to Good Thunder since they lost their class play earnings in a robbery.

Just a chicken

Penny Nelson always lived in the country. When her father became ill, she was sent to live with Dr. and Mrs. Mason. The Mason children, especially Kathy, thinks she will be a hick. Therefore, the rest of Kathy's gang decides to give Kathy just what she is looking for---a country hick.

A vintage black and white photograph of a wedding party posing outdoors on a patterned blanket. The bride and groom are seated in the front center, both wearing white wedding attire. Behind them stand four bridesmaids in light-colored dresses and two groomsmen in dark suits. To the left of the group is a large, rectangular gift box wrapped in paper with a dark, polka-dot pattern. The setting appears to be a grassy field with trees and a building in the background. The photograph has a slightly aged, grainy quality.

The Junior and Senior Prom was held on May 12th. The theme was, "In A Little Spanish Town." The banquet was held at 6:30. The Junior Mothers cooked while the sophomore girls served. Dancing was from 9:00 until 12:00.

These two pictures show some of the fun a few of the teachers had at the dance.

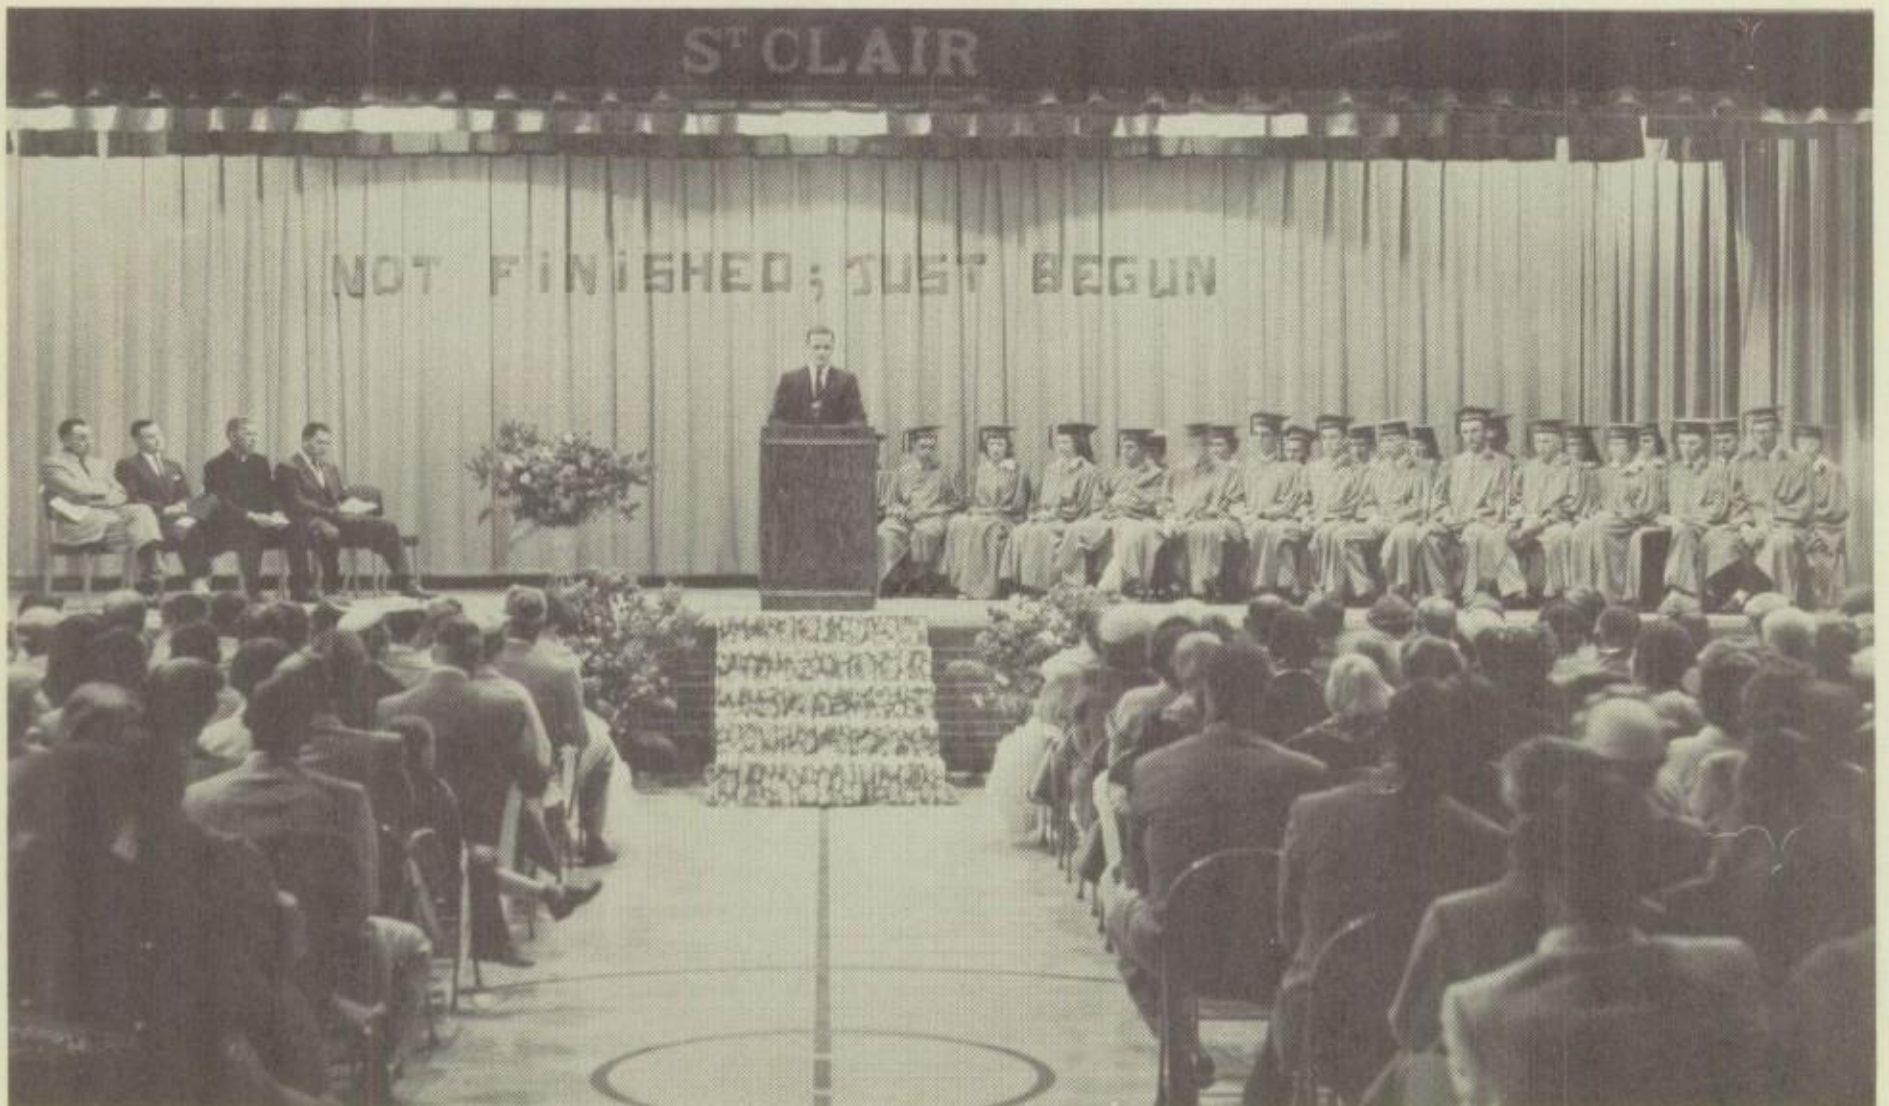

These two pictures of a hard-time dance are taken from just one of many junior high dances put on during the year. They were very well attended, and they were by all means considered a tremendous success.
